Forwards for sanction a draft amendment to the Market Bye-laws in Appendix relating thereto after observing the prescribed formalities.

The object of the proposed amendment is to remove the apparent inconsistency between Bye Law No 8 and Bye law No 9 in the existing Bye-laws and and to insert as Bye law 20 A a penalty clause which at present does not exist

2) Bye-law 8 deals with employment by the lessee of a shop of another person to act as his Head and Bye-law No. 9 deals with Sub letting It therefore requires to be considered whether Sub letting" includes the same thing as "employing another to act as the Head" If it is the same then bye laws 8 and 9 would be inconsistent and requires to be amended Otherwise there will not be any need for this amendment. The fact that these clauses also declaring that the whole proceedings originally the bye laws should void so that the Govt were entitled to deal with the different position and relationship as declining the lessee on the one hand and the person acting for them and the sub lessee on the other. The person who acts for the occupier under a lease may not perhaps be deemed to be a sub lessee and the difference is one to the detriment of the interest the lessee has in the tenement from out the premises. This point requires clarification

3) under Sub Sec (ab) of Sec 81, the Municipal Council is empowered to prescribed a fine not exceeding Rs 5000/- for the infringement of any bye-law with the sanction of Govt the particular clause now proposed does not prescribe a specific fine but provides for cancellation of agreement, eviction and other penalties imposed under the Act and bye laws which may perhaps be, (vague

The Secretary to Government,

(Through the President)

Sir,

Subject:- Amendment of the market bye-laws

I write to state that according to the present provision in Rule 8 of the market bye-laws every shop keeper, stall holder or permanent vendor could employ another person in his stead, under intimation to Market Daroga, while according to rule (9 A) a sub - letting requires previous permission of the President As the practical application of these rules offered some difficulties on account of the anamolous situation that the interpretation of both the rules led to, the Council had the matter examined by the Legal Committee, at considerable length, and on their recommendation approved of an amendment to the bye-laws as per enclosed Gazette Notification No objections having been received in response to the above notification, within the stipulated period of one month, the Council finally approved of the amendment at their meeting held on 11th October 1951 In enclosing a copy of the resolution of the Council in this behalf, I request you kindly to obtain orders of Government approving the proposed amendment to the bye-laws

Yours faithfully,

Sir,

With reference to your letter No L 10497 dated 3-1-1952 on the above subject I write to state that it is not the intention of the Municipal Council to prohibit the employment of servants by tenants Even according to the byelaws as proposed no such appointment should be made without previously obtaining in writing a permission of the Managing Committee of the Municipal Council The reason why such a stringent direction has been provided is that under cover of appointing vendors and servants several tenants in the Devaraja Market have in effect sublet their stalls to the detriment of Municipal Revenue In order to prevent the exploitation of such a subterfuge the Council thought it fit to make it necessary for permission to be taken even for the employment of any person to work in premises leased out to a particular tenant However, as such a provision might possibly inconvenience a bonafide tenant who wishes to employ a paid servant to assist him in the shop, the Municipal Council it is presumed would not have objection to the insertion of a provision as follows under byelaw No 8

Provided that such previous permission in writing shall not be necessary in a case where the tenant while being in actual charge or possession of the premises leased out to him wishes to employ a paid servant to give him assistance in the place or shop leased out to him It would be sufficient in such a case if the employment of the servant in question is intimated to the Managing Committee or the Council who shall have the right to permit the employment of the servant or to refuse to permit the employment of the servant on a consideration of the merits of each case "

Such a provision would automatically permit the employment of servants by the tenants in anticipation of permission But at the same time it would make it possible for the Managing Committee o the Council as the case may be to examine whether such an employment is made bonafide or is made as subterfuge to cover subletting The insertion of this provision may kindl be ordered by the Government The matter will also be placed before the Municipal Council at its next meeting for its formal ratification

Yours faithfully,
